

United Coal Co.
LIMITED.
Lump Coal$4.00
Nutm Coal$3.25
PHONES 411-284.

VOL. VII. NO. 179.

The Dominion

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1916.

TEN PAGES TODAY

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Teutons Advance in Wallachian Province Is Not Yet Stopped

Semi-official Advice From Berlin Say That Von Falkenhayn's Army up to Nov. 21st Had Overrun 11,000 Square Kilometers of Rumanian Wheat Soil—Russians Have Been Reinforced on Eastern Transylvanian Border—Artillery Attacks, But Little Infantry Fighting on West Front.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Teutonic allies in the Wallachian province are, according to Teutonic cables, not yet contracted by Bucharest or Petrograd. Keeping up their advance against the Rumanians. The operations there, according to the latest German official communication "are progressing in accordance with our plans."

Semi-official advices from Berlin are to the effect that General von Falkenhayn's army, up to November 21, had taken 11,000 square kilometers of wheat soil in Wallachia, and with the capture of the railway, had shut off the communication of all the Rumanian troops west of Chisinau.

Berlin records the reinforcement of the Russians on the eastern Transylvanian border, but the locality where they have arrived is not definitely stated. In the Alt region Bucharest reports that the Rumanians are holding their positions.

GAINS IN ROUMANIA OFFSET BY LOSSES OF HUNS ELSEWHERE

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Teutonic allies in the Wallachian province are, according to Teutonic cables, not yet contracted by Bucharest or Petrograd. Keeping up their advance against the Rumanians. The operations there, according to the latest German official communication "are progressing in accordance with our plans."

Semi-official advices from Berlin are to the effect that General von Falkenhayn's army, up to November 21, had taken 11,000 square kilometers of wheat soil in Wallachia, and with the capture of the railway, had shut off the communication of all the Rumanian troops west of Chisinau.

Berlin records the reinforcement of the Russians on the eastern Transylvanian border, but the locality where they have arrived is not definitely stated. In the Alt region Bucharest reports that the Rumanians are holding their positions.

GAINS IN ROUMANIA OFFSET BY LOSSES OF HUNS ELSEWHERE

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Teutonic allies in the Wallachian province are, according to Teutonic cables, not yet contracted by Bucharest or Petrograd. Keeping up their advance against the Rumanians. The operations there, according to the latest German official communication "are progressing in accordance with our plans."

Semi-official advices from Berlin are to the effect that General von Falkenhayn's army, up to November 21, had taken 11,000 square kilometers of wheat soil in Wallachia, and with the capture of the railway, had shut off the communication of all the Rumanian troops west of Chisinau.

Berlin records the reinforcement of the Russians on the eastern Transylvanian border, but the locality where they have arrived is not definitely stated. In the Alt region Bucharest reports that the Rumanians are holding their positions.

GAINS IN ROUMANIA OFFSET BY LOSSES OF HUNS ELSEWHERE

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Teutonic allies in the Wallachian province are, according to Teutonic cables, not yet contracted by Bucharest or Petrograd. Keeping up their advance against the Rumanians. The operations there, according to the latest German official communication "are progressing in accordance with our plans."

Semi-official advices from Berlin are to the effect that General von Falkenhayn's army, up to November 21, had taken 11,000 square kilometers of wheat soil in Wallachia, and with the capture of the railway, had shut off the communication of all the Rumanian troops west of Chisinau.

Berlin records the reinforcement of the Russians on the eastern Transylvanian border, but the locality where they have arrived is not definitely stated. In the Alt region Bucharest reports that the Rumanians are holding their positions.

GAINS IN ROUMANIA OFFSET BY LOSSES OF HUNS ELSEWHERE

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Teutonic allies in the Wallachian province are, according to Teutonic cables, not yet contracted by Bucharest or Petrograd. Keeping up their advance against the Rumanians. The operations there, according to the latest German official communication "are progressing in accordance with our plans."

Semi-official advices from Berlin are to the effect that General von Falkenhayn's army, up to November 21, had taken 11,000 square kilometers of wheat soil in Wallachia, and with the capture of the railway, had shut off the communication of all the Rumanian troops west of Chisinau.

Berlin records the reinforcement of the Russians on the eastern Transylvanian border, but the locality where they have arrived is not definitely stated. In the Alt region Bucharest reports that the Rumanians are holding their positions.

GAINS IN ROUMANIA OFFSET BY LOSSES OF HUNS ELSEWHERE

HON. A. E. KEMP IS MINISTER OF MILITIA

Sworn in Thursday Afternoon. Writes For Election to be Issued at Once

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—Canada has a minister of militia. As generally anticipated the mantle of Sir Ran-ald Macdonald has fallen upon the shoulders of Hon. A. E. Kemp, who has been sworn in as minister of militia in the cabinet of Sir Robert Borden.

Mr. Kemp will continue to act in the office of minister of militia in the absence of Sir Ranald Macdonald, who is on leave of absence.

Mr. Kemp is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

He is a member of the House of Commons and has been in the cabinet since the formation of the present government.

Henry For Mayor

Civic politics have travelled fast and far in a short time. Very recently there were no mayoral candidates in sight; but once a candidate was announced other aspirants followed, until during the past few days five candidates for the mayoralty were seeking support. The situation thus suddenly became one of extreme danger to the city.

Naturally each one of the five held his own view of the danger to the proper direction of civic affairs. While it may be true that "In a multitude of counsellors there is wisdom," it is also true that "In a multitude of candidates there is confusion."

The position of the city at the present time is not such that the citizens can afford to take chances. A divided contest for the mayoralty would itself in the city, as it would show that there was no well-founded public opinion in regard to civic matters.

It is not known whether a successful contest would be a bad start towards that end. The longer the contest, the more it became evident that the result of the election would stand.

The situation has appealed strongly to many citizens having varied and active business interests, which must be prejudicially affected by unfavorable conditions and efforts have been made from various directions to secure the withdrawal of several of the candidates holding somewhat similar views, so that a united support could be given to the candidate of their choice.

Mr. Mackenzie did not take the same view, and for the present it is assumed that he will stand for a third term. The tender of support by Messrs. Macdonald and Bellamy, and other prominent citizens, is understood that Mayor Henry has consented to stand for a third term.

It is to be sincerely hoped that this will be the case, and that other candidates will follow the example of Messrs. Macdonald and Bellamy and sink personal views or wishes in support of the city.

The dangers are not yet past. The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

The reelection of Mayor Henry will be a great boon to the city.

Internal Explosion Destroys Big Warship With Loss of 200 Men

Russian Officially Announces Sinking of Imperatritsa Maria—Fire Breaks Out in Forward Magazine—Officers and Men Try Hard to Localize Effect of Explosion in Petrol Tanks, But Ship Sinks About Hour After—Dreadnought Lies in Shallow Water and May be Relocated.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PETROGRAD, Nov. 23, via London, Nov. 24.—Russia officially announces the loss of the dreadnought Imperatritsa Maria. A statement issued tonight reads:

"The Russian dreadnought Imperatritsa Maria has been sunk by an internal explosion. Two hundred of the crew are missing."

The Imperatritsa Maria was a battleship of 22,500 tons displacement, built at Nicolaiev and launched in 1913. She was 551½ feet in length, carried 12 12-inch and 20 5½-inch guns, and had a speed of 21 knots. She would carry a complement of about 800 officers and men, but available official records do not give the number.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The Russian naval staff, says a Russian despatch from Petrograd, has issued the following statement:

"At 6 o'clock on November 24th fire broke out in the forward magazine of the Imperatritsa Maria. An internal explosion followed immediately and the fire spread rapidly."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

She was afloat and took personal command of the operations. "Shortly after 7 o'clock, however, the vessel sank. The greater part of the crew were killed. Sixty-two of the first-class and sub-officers and 141 sailors are missing. Sixty-two crew have since died from the effects of the explosion."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

"The position of the ship, which lies in shallow water, gave hope that she may be refloated and completely repaired. The British navy is only one yard away water."

MAKES APPEAL TO BRITISH FOR BIGGER EFFORT

Sir William Robertson Addresses Letter to London Borough

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, Nov. 23.—The increasing newspapers today give prominence to the appeal made by Sir William Robertson to the British for a bigger effort.

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

"I have every confidence in the ability of the British people to win the war, but I feel that we must not yet give up. We must not yet give up. We must not yet give up."

SERIOUS FIRE IN PRINCE ALBERT

Departmental Store of Macleod Company Completely Destroyed—Loss Heavy $200,000.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Nov. 23.—The departmental store of the Macleod Company, Ltd., was completely destroyed by fire which broke out shortly after seven o'clock.

The fire started in the stock in the basement of the building. The chief cause of the fire was a candle which had been left burning.

The fire spread rapidly throughout the building, and everything in it was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

The fire started in the stock in the basement of the building. The chief cause of the fire was a candle which had been left burning.

The fire spread rapidly throughout the building, and everything in it was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

The fire started in the stock in the basement of the building. The chief cause of the fire was a candle which had been left burning.

The fire spread rapidly throughout the building, and everything in it was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

The fire started in the stock in the basement of the building. The chief cause of the fire was a candle which had been left burning.

The fire spread rapidly throughout the building, and everything in it was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

VILLAGE FORCES IN DEFEAT

EL PASO, TEX., Nov. 23.—Principals Villi withdrew his surviving forces from the Chihuahua City at 4:15 o'clock.

Three hundred prisoners, German, during which he made a speech to the troops.

General Trevino's protesting words by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

General Trevino's protesting words by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

General Trevino's protesting words by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

General Trevino's protesting words by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

General Trevino's protesting words by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

General Trevino's protesting words by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

General Trevino's protesting words by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

General Trevino's protesting words by assault, according to reports from Juarez.

HEAVY LOSSES FOR OTTAWA

Prominent Young Men of Capital City Are Among Latest Casualties

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—At least two Ottawa battalions and one or more of the Ottawa battalions were hard hit in the recent fighting.

The reports of the Ottawa battalions in these units, reports in advance of the Ottawa battalions.

The reports of the Ottawa battalions in these units, reports in advance of the Ottawa battalions.

The reports of the Ottawa battalions in these units, reports in advance of the Ottawa battalions.

The reports of the Ottawa battalions in these units, reports in advance of the Ottawa battalions.

The reports of the Ottawa battalions in these units, reports in advance of the Ottawa battalions.

The reports of the Ottawa battalions in these units, reports in advance of the Ottawa battalions.

The reports of the Ottawa battalions in these units, reports in advance of the Ottawa battalions.

The reports of the Ottawa battalions in these units, reports in advance of the Ottawa battalions.

LINE ELEVATOR COMPANIES ARE MAKING A CUT

Calgary, Nov. 23.—Line elevator companies operating out of Calgary are making a cut of three cents on the price of coal.

The cut is being made because of the shortage of coal in the city.

The cut is being made because of the shortage of coal in the city.

The cut is being made because of the shortage of coal in the city.

The cut is being made because of the shortage of coal in the city.

The cut is being made because of the shortage of coal in the city.

The cut is being made because of the shortage of coal in the city.

The cut is being made because of the shortage of coal in the city.

The cut is being made because of the shortage of coal in the city.

The cut is being made because of the shortage of coal in the city.

NEW SCHEME TO ENCOURAGE SMALL BANK SAVINGS

Banks to Receive Deposits in Small Sums and Issue $25 Certificates

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—The new scheme designed to encourage savings for war will be ready to start in a few days.

The scheme is being introduced by the Bank of Canada.

The scheme is being introduced by the Bank of Canada.

The scheme is being introduced by the Bank of Canada.

The scheme is being introduced by the Bank of Canada.

The scheme is being introduced by the Bank of Canada.

The scheme is being introduced by the Bank of Canada.

The scheme is being introduced by the Bank of Canada.

The scheme is being introduced by the Bank of Canada.

VEGETABLE MAN IS RETURNING

Lieut. J. R. Ogilvy-Wille Will Be Wounded in Shell Fire on Ypres Salient

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—The vegetable man who was wounded in the Ypres salient is returning to his home.

The vegetable man was wounded in the Ypres salient.

The vegetable man was wounded in the Ypres salient.

The vegetable man was wounded in the Ypres salient.

The vegetable man was wounded in the Ypres salient.

 Racing *****
Baseball Football

GOODFELLOWS CLUB TO HAVE BOYS AS GUESTS

New Members of Y.M.C.A. will be Guests of Club This Evening

Tonight at 8 o'clock the 200 boys who were brought into Y.M.C.A. membership during the recent campaign are to be entertained at supper by the "Goodfellows" who are responsible for their enjoyment of the association privileges. The affair will be held in the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium, and if enthusiasm counts for anything it will be an occasion likely to be remembered by those who attend. The ladies of Grace Methodist church, who have the reputation for furnishing fine support, have been assigned the duty of serving the supper. The boys, each Goodfellow with an "X" on his back, will sit at the table with the boys or boys for whom he has become sponsor. The lucky possessors of supper tickets kept the "X" on their backs yesterday. Mr. Green and Mr. Jackson, who they would be present, J. A. Brookman, of the Goodfellows Club, will preside at the supper and deliver a program of music and good fellowship to follow. Every "Goodfellow" in the city is expected to put aside everything which might excite controversy to be there with this "boy." The excellent efforts of the Goodfellows will furnish much during the supper. If any boy who is entitled to a ticket has not received it by mail in time he

STAGGER WITH NEWEST GRID ALIBI

Connellsville high school at Connellsville, Pa., recently produced with the Wilkesburg high school football eleven, and the collision occurred on the latter's field. When the wreckage had been cleared away Wilkesburg had won, 25 to 9. Now for the alibi. Six buckwheat cakes stood between Connellsville and victory. According to one of the team's backers one player was guilty of a breach of etiquette. He went over the limit in cake—buckwheat cakes—favoring six more than the rules allowed. Result: Player couldn't play up to form after the first half and Wilkesburg romped off with victory in the third and fourth periods.

TALK OF BASEBALL WAR

A story that the baseball war is to be renewed is printed in the New York Evening Sun. Larry P. Sincich, former Federal league angel and former major league player, is to form after the first half and Wilkesburg romped off with victory in the third and fourth periods.

This Is an Awkward Time to Start on a Honeymoon.

—By Webster.

(Copyright, 1916, by H. T. Webster)

Sportography by GRAY.

Baltimore is the largest minor league city, but you never hear any Baltimorean boasting of it.

Connie Mack really ought to take his players to a training camp in Mexico, where proper in the national dish.

New Iberia, La., ought to be a fine place for season baseball players. It is the centre of the tobacco sugar industry.

One could name several minor league clubs that might benefit from a visit to the island of Jamaica, where ginger is cultivated.

Grouchy Gus says: Boxers say that a knockout is a hurt, but that's what dentists say about pulling a tooth.

Brickley's Bureau. Charlie Brickley, the Harvard gridiron star of a few years ago and one of the greatest players in football history, will celebrate his twenty-fifth birthday today, on the eve of his annual annual struggle with Yale.

After leaving Harvard, Brickley was engaged as football coach at Boston College. The fall that the top-looking expert has been instructing the Harvard men in his specialty, and he has also been reporting Harvard games.

Brickley played the gridiron game throughout his Harvard career, and was captain of the eleven in his senior year. Drop-kicking was his greatest accomplishment, although he was a remarkable all-around man.

In his first year at Harvard he was the star of the freshman team, and from then on, Brickley's "educated toe" was the despair of all rival colleges. In the Harvard-Yale game three years ago he kicked a goal from placement from the 25-yard line, and Army-kicked four more, 25, 22, 23 and 30 yards.

The Army-Navy Game. Uncle Sam's incipient officers of West Point and Annapolis will clash on the Polo Grounds in New York tomorrow in their annual battle for football supremacy. While the Navy scarcely hopes for victory, the rare are confident that they will not have to be content with the goose-egg; they wish to get a touchdown.

Brickley played the gridiron game throughout his Harvard career, and was captain of the eleven in his senior year. Drop-kicking was his greatest accomplishment, although he was a remarkable all-around man.

Today in Football. Annals. Charles Watson Mitchell, the old English leader, who was one of the cleverest and best light heavyweight boxers, has died aged 83 at his home in Birmingham, England, fifty-five years ago today. Charlie Mitchell, as he was known to ring followers, fought a

EUROPEAN SKATERS ARRIVE

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Among the passengers arriving by the steamer Stockholm today were three celebrated figure skaters, Fritz Bergfeldt, Meyer Horer and Ullrik Solow, who will compete and give exhibitions in this country.

Frank Herfeldt is a German and Ullrik Solow, a Dane, and both have won championships in their country were respectively. "We get but one egg a week," he declared, "and a piece of meat about this size," holding up a very small hand. "I am off to a hotel for a good meal."

BULLET JOE WINS CASE

Bullet Joe Dunn of the Philadelphia Athletics pitching staff, won the $7500 damage suit which resulted from his running down and killing Louis Miller, aged Northern Pacific fireman, in an automobile. Mr. E. Ryan, great Philadelphia baseball fan, defended Dunn.

thirty-nine round draw in France with John L. Sullivan in '98, and defeated many good heavyweights, although he was only 5 feet 8 inches in height, and weighed only about 160 pounds at his fighting best. Mitchell never held a championship, although for years he was second choice of the best men in England, and called himself "the second choice of the world."

changes of Great Britain. Charlie has been reported dead or dying several times in the last few years, but he paid a brief visit to America last summer and personally gave the fans to such rumors. He admits he is older than he is. He isn't physically fit to serve as a soldier, but he has done good work in recruiting.

bullet says Leonard has only one real good knock-out, and that's Jimmie Wilde, the "Mighty Atom," whom he describes as one of the "wonders of the world."

STILL PLANNING PRO. CIRCUIT IN UNITED STATES

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Canadian national winter games—hockey—are to bloom in all parts of the United States during the coming season, according to present indications.

In fact, a wave of skating and hockey enthusiasm is predicted by those in close touch with the sport. As was the case last year, it is impossible to meet the demand for skates.

Few of the factories have been turning them out, and already the majority of the Canadian rink skates shipped over all in their stockrooms.

The opening of the new ice skating palace here has, of course, raised the fever in New York, but Philadelphia, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and many other cities, there is equal excitement. Out at the coast, similar conditions prevail.

Already there is talk of the organization of a professional hockey league to include New York, Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia, but it is probable that the amateurs will have the call again during the coming winter, though a first-class league along the above lines would, no doubt, prove a profitable proposition.

Manager Feltows of the St. Nicholas rink will probably arrange the annual professional hockey series, to take place next March, during the winter several of the leading skaters from Ottawa, Montreal and Montreal will appear at New York rink.

Several former Canadian skaters have been in the city, and it is probable that they will appear on the line-up of local teams.

SPORTING COMMENT

The news that Barney Stanley has decided to go to the coast to play hockey again this winter is not a great surprise, rather it is a compliment to the regard in which the local player is held by the professional hockey magnates at the coast. When Barney announced his retirement from the game he was most serious in his intentions, and it was in no way an aid for holding out for more money. He thought that as a business proposition, he would do better by sticking to his local employers than by going to Vancouver to play the game at the same time anyone who has once attained proficiency in any game leaves that sport, and when the coast people tried him to come and play, he refused him more salary, and a chance to play with Spokane, the Edmonton City Daily considered his application for a leave of absence and granted it. With Mickey McKay and Larry Cook upon the Vancouver line-up, and Barney Stanley with Spokane, the coast league games will be of unusual interest to local spectators.

With the Federal League done for, it looked like a quiet winter in the hot-weather league; but leave it to the managers to stir up some excitement by keeping the game before the public during the cold winter months. This time, quite as a coincidence, there is a hockey team in the city, and the players and the league. This of course, will be settled, and in the spring, but in the meantime, the players will have an opportunity to force the great summer pastime.

The American Amateur Athletic Union officials have formally recognized George Goulding's right to the record time that he made last winter when he covered the two mile distance in 13:37. The reports say that there was considerable contention before the record was accepted, the contention, doubtless, being caused by the walls of a few jealous American walkers who were so badly shown up last winter, after having been beaten by the Canadian, that they win against the Canadian champion.

For a while it looked as though there would be only two curling clubs in action in Edmonton during this season, but as the weather settled and the curlers found the time for the rocks to be thrown down the ice sheets, the curlers of the city made those clubs, which were thinking of dissolving, reconsider their proposition. The Strathcona club, which before last, organized for the season, making the third year club and now the people in the Highlands are beginning to think of the long trips which it will be necessary to make down town at night in order to indulge in the game, and are also inclined to call a meeting to look over the prospects for a club this winter season. If the four clubs are again in working order, the curling season will be a very interesting one. The club games should be arranged to keep up interest in the sport. There is nothing like rivalry to drive things in any branch of sport. Two inter-club matches a week would be a mighty good thing.

VANCOUVER TEAM ABOUT COMPLETE

Lloyd Cook Arrives and Jumps
Into Uniform For Practice
At Once

VANCOUVER, Nov. 21.—With the arrival of Lloyd Cook, "let's wing" to the Vancouver club, the Millionaire hockey team, in complete with the exception of Hugh Lohman, who is scheduled to reach here on Saturday.

Cook arrived yesterday afternoon and took part in the afternoon practice.

With the receipt of a telegram yesterday afternoon from Murray of Seattle, B.C., the effect that the Sea King was unable to come here for a try-out, it was practically assured that the Millionaire team is signed with the Spokane team will play with the Millionaire. McDonald has been practicing with the local hockey crew and hopes to line up in a Terminal City uniform when Seattle opens here on December 2.

Frank Patrick himself was out for a little exercise yesterday, but refused to say whether he will play this winter or not.

Nothing further has been given out on the Portland-Spokane squabble over players and the matter is expected to be settled satisfactorily by Sunday.

GUY AXWORTHY SOLD

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Guy Axworthy, star of the world's champion trotter, Les Axworthy, was sold at auction today for $3500. He passed from the estate of the late Jacob Ruppert to that of the late J. V. Harkness. He probably will be turned over to the late J. Harkness, his sister, Mrs. A. K. Macomber, who has been the owner of the horse since the death of her husband. Guy Axworthy was a world's champion on half mile track, and besides producing Les Axworthy, he is the sire of more winners than any other American stallion except Todd and Hingra.

BOXING AT LETHBRIDGE

LETHBRIDGE, Nov. 21.—A fine program of boxing was put on here tonight by the Lethbridge Amateur Athletic Club. One ten-round match and one five-round bout were staged. The main bout of the evening, between Young Tom, of Lethbridge, and Ed Cohen, of Great Falls, Mont., was for the title of Lethbridge champion. The bout was a very close one, and Andy Mulcahy, of Calgary, welterweight; James Frash, of Faber, Alberta; and Jimmy Law, of Lethbridge, and Prince Kid of Lethbridge and Ted Malone of Fort Worth, Texas. They were all good ones.

When you come here for a suit of clothes or an overcoat our object is to make you a permanent satisfied customer of this store.

We know no better way to do it than by selling you

ART CLOTHES
COOK BROS. & CO. ALLEN LIMITED

SOLE AGENTS
HOOPER'S, The Shop for Men
10220 JASPER. Opposite Pantages

BUSINESS

Every man, who appreciates the fact that his personal appearance can be a business asset, will appreciate the good style and good taste of Fit-Reform Suits.

Call on us to show you the new winter styles.
Fit-Reform
J. H. MORRIS & CO
270 to 276 JASPER AVENUE EAST

PRESENT ARMS!

See These Fine
Overcoats at $20.00

Warm stylish Ulsters, well tailored in plain Grey, Blue, and Brown imported fabrics; notch or shawl collar, belted back.

Extreme Value in Men's and Young Men's Suits at

Beautifully tailored and perfect fitting garments, in plain greys, checks and fine stripes in Blues and Greys. A revelation to you of extreme value.

Buy Your Underwear Now
The largest and best Underwear stocks in the city. Fall and Winter weight, from $2.00 per suit.

STANLEY & JACKSON
10117 JASPER AVE.

